

Personal use of Group Minibus

Version 4 1st JANUARY 2023

- Leaders should also read all other policies relating to the minibus before use

The Group Minibus can be used by Leaders of the Group for personal use provided they ask permission from the GSL and have completed a Driver's License check.

They must comply with the law and insurance of the vehicle. Please tell the GSL what your intended use of the bus will be.

Please note the Minibus is for transporting people not goods or materials. Any damage to the interior or exterior of the vehicle while being used for personal use must be paid for by the user. Only adults DBS checked with the group can use the bus for personal use.

Personal use is free of charge, but all fuel used must be replaced and all statutory paperwork completed.
